Introducing a cask strength Bruichladdich

Bruichladdich 'Full Strength' is an addition to our range, to satisfy the demand for a cask strength Laddie from our aficionados.

Jim McEwan, our Master Distiller, has personally selected American oak casks from the Bruichladdich warehouses and carefully vatted them together to create an individual style or cuvée.

Like all our bottlings, this First Edition Bruichladdich 13 Year Old is caramel free. After maturation in our shore-side warehouses, it has been bottled without chill-filtration in the Distillery, at its natural strength, allowing consumers to decide how they prefer to drink their sophisticated Islay Single Malt.

- First edition 13 years old
- Bottled at full strength 57.1% Vol
- Casks selected by Jim McEwan
- Not chill filtered
- Caramel free
- Bottled in the Bruichladdich Distillery

- Cask American Oak
Colour Luminous light golden yellow.
Body Middleweight and muscular with a sturdy oak foundation.
Nose Freshly turned dry hay, soft peppermint and ripe green apples. Lemon barley, red berries and black pepper. Ripe nectarines and fresh spring forest aromas. Then add a dash of aniseed. It's zesty, potent and appealing. Absolutely bursting with energy. Release the genie!
Palate Warm salted butter and barley sugar. It's tangy, crisp and clean on the palate. The fruit is fresh - plump green grapes, pink grapefruit, green melon. Locketts and lemon sorbet. Beautiful light oaky flavours add impressive harmony to the taste. What I really love about this spirit is simply that the taste of old style handmade whisky is so outstanding. No frills, just thrills.
Finish Snappy, not particularly complex spirit. A clean, lean Islay machine.
